The school recognizes Shannon as one of the finest defensive coaches in all of college football, coaching top 10 defenses in five of those six seasons.

Shannon's appointment caps a long string of successes dating all the way to the days when he himself was a player for UM, being a four-year letterman at linebacker, receiving the Christopher Plummer Award for most inspirational player as a senior, later playing for the Dallas Cowboys for a total of two years before going into coaching. Shannon, a Miami native is a graduate of Miami Norland Senior High School, Class of 1985.
