

Communication with the Public

SCHOOL-SPONSORED PUBLICATIONS, RADIO AND TELEVISION

Publications issued by and in the name of the schools of this county shall reflect the high regard and aspirations of our people for their schools. There must be no compromise with high quality of editorial content and effective format. The exercise of appropriate economy in materials and production is expected as long as the main purpose is not jeopardized.

Regular and special radio and television programs shall be consistent with the goals of our schools approved by the Board. It is important that such programs also reflect the high regard and aspirations of our people for their schools.
