MEMBERSHIP SOLICITATION BY RECOGNIZED EMPLOYEE ORGANIZATIONS

Representatives of recognized employee organizations who are not employed by the School Board at the work location may contact employees on Board property to solicit membership under the following provisions.

1. The principal or administrative head is notified in advance by the representative of the employee organization and permission is granted. Such permission is not to be arbitrarily withheld.
2. The person soliciting membership is an official representative of the organization and provides such identification.
3. The operation of classes and employee responsibilities are not affected.
4. Participation by employees is strictly voluntary.
5. The solicitation takes place only before or after working hours of employees.
