TUTORING

The following rules shall apply to any public school employee who engages in independent tutoring for a fee of any student enrolled in the public schools:

1. The employee shall not arrange to tutor for a fee, nor to solicit for a private school, any student currently enrolled in his/her classes.
2. The employee shall not tutor any student for a fee, during regular working hours of the employee nor on public school premises.
3. An employee who accepts tutoring engagements shall make arrangements with the parents for the fees to be charged.

Qualifications for Private Tutors

The following information is quoted from Rules of the State Department of Education, 6A-1.951:

"Private tutors. - Any person who tutors a child of compulsory attendance age, when such tutoring is in lieu of school attendance for the child, shall meet the following requirements:

"(1) He shall hold a valid Florida certificate to teach the subjects or grades in which instruction is given.

"(2) He shall keep all records and make all reports required by the state and school board and shall make regular reports on the attendance of pupils in accordance with the provisions of Section 232.17, Florida Statutes.

"(3) He shall require pupils to be in actual attendance for the minimum time as prescribed in Section 228.041(17), Florida Statutes.

"(4) Any person who engages in private tutoring of children of compulsory school age who fails to meet the requirements shall be subject to prosecution under the provisions of the Compulsory Attendance Law."
