

ActivitiesEMPLOYEE ORGANIZATIONS--GRANTING AND WITHDRAWAL OF RECOGNITION

Organizations Concerned Primarily with Growth and Development of the Employee.

The Board will grant official recognition to those employee organizations concerned primarily with growth and development of the employee in a particular field--generally known as subject area groups.

A. Granting Official Recognition

The Board by an official action will grant official recognition to any employee organization concerned primarily with growth and development of the employee provided that the organization complies with the following:

The organization submits a letter to the Board to request official recognition and provides annually the following information which shall be kept on file at the Board office:

1. Names of elected officers;
2. Copy of constitution, bylaws and other documents of governance;
3. Statement adopted by the membership to the effect that membership in the organization is not barred on the basis of race, religion or national origin.

B. Withdrawal of Official Recognition

In the event that an employee organization which has been granted official recognition by the Board abuses legal and other responsibilities in its relationships with the Board such recognition will be withdrawn and services will be suspended, with notice.
